Our aim is to help you make smarter financial decisions and achieve your finance goals with a few simple principles such as investing in yourself, managing risk, protecting yourself and loved ones, borrow sparingly and plan well.

The best way to get started is to arrange an initial introduction call or meeting with Lennox Pitt - CEO & Independent Financial Adviser, where we can assess your risk profile and objectives.

This session can be in person or virtually via Zoom/WhatsApp/Phone Call, etc.

Our initial meeting/call will cover a review of your employment, income, assets, liabilities/expenses and goals to devise a plan and suitable recommendations to realise your financial ambitions, taking into consideration factors such as your dependents, health, income expectations and can even review and rebalance existing policies.

When you contact us please advise your name, email address, phone number, reason for contact & who referred you if applicable
